JUDICIAL ORDER NO. 2005-⁰⁸~~07~~

At the session of the Court held in the Courtroom, County of Ingham, State of Michigan, on the 01 day of December, 2005.

PRESENT: HONORABLE ROSEMARIE E. AQUILINA CHIEF JUDGE

Pursuant to MCL 769.1f, The 55th District Court will assess and collect reimbursement for all Ingham County Police Agencies and the Ingham County Prosecutor on all drunk and drug cases where official reimbursement information has been submitted to the court. It will be the responsibility of the agencies and prosecutor to provide the court with this information upon submission of the ticket or complaint. Failure to provide the Court with appropriate notice in the specified timeframe will result in loss of reimbursement to the agency.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court will not close a case until said reimbursement is paid in full. Payment options will be available for all defendants (i.e. payment plans), however, reimbursement will not be collected from credit card payments until such time as a viable processing program is secured. Payments to all agencies and the prosecutor will be processed and transmitted by the court on a monthly basis.

ROSEMARIE E. AQUILINA, Chief Judge
